

A prayer when you need a way forward

Father, I feel stuck. I have prayed, planned, waited, and tried, and I still cannot see the way forward. You know the pressure I carry—the financial needs, the delayed hopes, the closed doors, and the spiritual tiredness I do not always admit.

Please provide what is needed and show me the next faithful step. Give me wisdom that is practical, not vague. Keep me from panic decisions, dishonest shortcuts, and comparing my timeline with someone else's. If a door needs to close, give me peace. If a door is mine to knock on, give me courage.

Renew my strength while I wait. Break through the hopelessness and confusion first, even before circumstances change. Send trustworthy counsel, useful opportunities, and the discipline to steward what is already in my hands.

I surrender my preferred timing without surrendering hope. Make a way in the wilderness, and shape my character as You lead me through it. In Jesus' name, amen.

From "A Prayer for Breakthrough: What to Pray When You Feel Stuck"
Free to save, print, and share for personal use.